Saint Alphonsus hosts open house for new Garrity hospital

The new Saint Alphonsus hospital near the corner of Interstate 84 and Garrity Boulevard hosted an open house Wednesday to give the public a look at the modern health care facility that replaces the organization's hospital on 12th Avenue Road.

With an $80 million price tag, the hospital was designed to fit the modern technological needs of 21st century hospital patrons and workers.

The five-story, 240,000-square-foot Saint Alphonsus hospital will have 100 total inpatient beds at the Nampa Health Plaza, including a 10-bed short-stay unit, 18-bed intensive care unit, 25-bed 24-hour emergency department and six-room surgical operating suite.
